

10 WAYS TO SERVE OTHERS

"People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care."

—THEODORE ROOSEVELT

We encourage disciples to seek out at least one opportunity each week to bless or serve others in their neighborhood, work, school, or everyday place. Here is a list of ideas to serve Jesus as you serve others.

1. Say a word of encouragement. Make it timely, specific, and simple. It could be something as simple as, "I can see you really love your kids and care about their well-being."
2. Ask people about their day and ask one follow-up question.
3. Mow a neighbor's lawn, rake their leaves, etc.
4. Take out a neighbor's trash or return their trash bins after trash day.
5. Take a neighbor, co-worker, or friend a baked good or treat just for them.
6. If a co-worker or neighbor has a new child or is experiencing a hard or stressful season, bring them a meal.
7. Bring your co-workers morning coffee, just because.
8. Offer to babysit for a neighbor or friend so they can go shopping, go on a date, or have some alone time.
9. Be considerate of those struggling in poverty or homelessness. Bring them warm drinks and ask them about their day.
10. _____.

What would you add? You could probably make this list 20 items long as you think about specific people in your life.
